

Since we pay for phone service, we should have more say in how it is used. I don't want to feel harassed, threatened, and cornered in my own home. Wisconsin's law limits businesses that I have done business with to one return call rather than an infinite number of calls for 18 months (federal).